Read Romans 14: 1 - 12

- Why might one person in the Roman church eat only vegetables? In what sense was their faith 'weak'? Does this have any bearing on vegetarianism or veganism today?
- Why might one person in the Roman church have sacred days? Is one day more sacred than another for you?
- What things are sacred to you that, in all honesty, you know might not matter to others?
- What 'disputable matters' might cause Christians to look down on each other today? How would this text help us respond?
- What is the essence of your faith? Can you describe it without making reference to 'disputable matters'?
