

The Bible study questions – Week Commencing 18th of October

1) Where do you find the Glory of God in your life?

This may be such places as:

- The beauty of nature
- Great music and art
- The love of a friend or church community
- Worship
- Opportunities to serve

2) As you look back over your life, do you think you see more clearly way God was at work?

3) In our gospel reading, David suggested that when Jesus says “Give to Caesar what is Caesar’s” he is referring to the fact that we are all made in the image of God. We can give coins to the government, but we give ourselves to God. What does it mean to be made in the image of God?

4) How does the Glory of Jesus contrast with earthly leaders? (Think not only of national leaders of but also those of organisations and businesses).

5) To what extent can we believe that Jesus’ meekness and sacrifice can lead to a glorious and eternal crown?
