

Bible Chat questions for Climate Sunday

- What touched you or impressed you or challenged you from Sunday's service?
- Read Psalm 24. Find at least two environmental messages from this Psalm.
- Read Romans 8: 18 - 27. Greta Thunberg said "Our planet is screaming for help."
Try to connect this claim with Romans 8.
- Paul links this planetary scream for help with the work of the Holy Spirit and with the destiny of God's people.
  - Discuss the link between spirituality and the struggle against the human activity that causes climate change.
  - If we pray for the health of the planet, how can we at the same time not live for the health of the planet by making 'green' lifestyle choices?
  - How might we foster a healthy, life-giving flow from our prayer, worship and church activities into our green lifestyle?
- What changes will you make to your life in view of this service?
- What can our church do practically in its own life to be increasingly an eco-church?
