Read John 14: 1 - 10

Verse 6 sounds like a claim that, unless you are Christian, you cannot come to the Father. David argued on Sunday that Jesus was talking about a very simple and pure way of being with God as a loving Father, and not insisting that people had to follow a particular religion.

1. Did you understand David's approach to this in the sermon?
2. To what extent did you find it helpful?
3. To what extent did you find it convincing?
4. What is your own attitude to people who live without Christian faith?
5. What is our motivation for sharing the personal gospel with them?
